HOLIDAY HOMEWORK (CLASS V)

Dear Parents,

Warm greetings! Summer vacation is a wonderful time for children to relax, learn, and create beautiful memories with family. Let us make this break joyful, meaningful, and enriching through fun, learning, and new experiences.

1. Cursive Writing:

- Hindi: Write one page daily in single line copy to improve your Hindi Writing.
- English: Write one page daily in cursive handwriting in 4-line notebook.

2. "My Holiday Adventure" Scrapbook /Travelogue: Prepare a creative scrapbook/travelogue based on your holidays. It may include photographs, drawings, tickets, wrappers, leaves, maps, and short descriptions.

3. Reading Challenge: Read one storybook OR three short stories/articles. After reading, write new words learnt and moral/lesson from the story.

4. Life Skills Challenge: Complete any 5 household/life skill activities out of the following: Laying the dining table, organizing bookshelf/wardrobe, folding clothes, stitching a button, making a simple snack/lemonade, helping parents in daily chores like writing a grocery list, serving water to guests, separating wet and dry waste.

5. Green Guardian Project: Adopt and take care of one plant during the holidays. Water the plant regularly and observe its growth. You can also create a small bird feeder.

6. Gratitude Project:

Write 3 thank-you notes. They can be for: parents, helpers, grandparents, teachers, friends, guards, drivers etc. Your project should not be less than 12 lines. It should be submitted to your class teacher after summer holidays.

7. Art & Craft: Draw the flower taught in class from page 6 in a circle of 30cm diameter and then cut it out. Make 6 such flowers in and colour them only in red or maroon colour. All 6 flowers should be of the same size and colour.
