HOLIDAY HOMEWORK (CLASS IV)

Dear parents,

Summer Vacation is a beautiful time to learn, play and create unforgettable memories together. We the teachers of Class IV are have crafted a holiday assignment, meticulously designed to foster independence and critical thinking. Let's turn this vacation into a grand adventure of learning and fun.

1. Make your ward do one page of English cursive handwriting in the four line notebook and one page of Hindi handwriting in a single line notebook, daily.
2. Help your ward to learn tables from 10 to 20.
3. Ask your child to write an original article or a story in English or Hindi along with a drawing for the school magazine. File it up in a folder and show it to your class teacher after the summer breaks
4. Make a chart on any topic from your syllabus.
5. A. Dry five kinds of leaves and paste them in a scrap book and label them.
B. Take five different pulses and pack them in small transparent packet and paste them in a same scrapbook and label them.
6. Make a '3D family tree' Build a tree using twigs or floral foam and colour it and hang or paste small framed photos or photos glued to card stock on the branches.
7. Art & Craft: 3D Paper Flower Cut-Outs
 - Use pastel paper with color on both sides
 - Make 2 big 3D flowers, size should cover your face.
 - Colors: Mix dark purple, light purple, and pink in each flower.
 - Both flowers must be of same size and same color combination.
 - Draw, cut, and layer/fold petals to add a 3D effect. Paste it neatly.
