HOLIDAY HOMEWORK (CLASS III)

As we begin with our summer vacations, we would like to share a few things that we would want your child to practice along with the fun and frolic that you have planned for them.

1. Learn two new words daily along with their meanings and write in your holiday diary.
2. Write 1 page cursive writing in (4 lines copy) and 1 page Hindi handwriting in (single line copy) daily.
3. Read one story book and draw your favourite character on a punch sheet.
4. Learn tables from 6 to 12.
5. MAINTAIN A SCRAPBOOK FOR THE FOLLOWING THINGS:
 - Paste pictures of the places you have visited in your holidays.
 - Paste pictures of animals and classify them as herbivores, carnivores and omnivores.
 - Paste pictures of you performing yoga on yoga day on 21st June.
6. Practice speaking politely in English using magical words with your siblings, parents, grandparents and elders.
7. ART AND CRAFT ACTIVITY: HANGING TWO BUTTERFLIES.
 - Make a big butterfly cut out as shown on page no. 16.
 - Use bright multi colours and glitters to decorate it.
 - Design can be same or different as per your choice.
 - Finish it neatly for hanging.
8. A FEW BASIC THINGS TO LEARN:
 - Arrange your school bag according to the timetable.
 - Learn to dressing up on your own.
 - Play outdoor games atleast one hour daily and avoid using mobile phones.
 - Learn basic table manners and help your parents in household work.
 - Keep an earthen pot filled with water for birds and animals.
 - Water your plants daily and care for nature.
 - Practice few yoga asanas.
